In Case That Grew Out of a Murder in Turkey

Judge John J. Pickman has rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the case of George Bandis against Jordan, who said that he had given to his agent, Savithes, the sum of $40 to have the man deported to Turkey where he could be placed on trial, and he further alleged that Savithes did not carry out a murder which was committed in Turkey in March of this year.

According to the testimony offered in this case, a woman was arrested in Turkey for the murder of a man and was sentenced to 18 years' penal servitude and ordered Savithes to pay $100, the costs of court.

Joseph Loughran appeared for Bandis, while Savithes was represented by John Leggett.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reilly, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

There is one thing and only one that can be said in favor of President Eliot's new religion: It is better than none at all. Better try again, Prexy.

It appears by the news despatches that General Adelbert Ames succeeded in beating Tatt at golf. Very cool indeed, but the great question is whether his son will be able to beat Henry Cabot Lodge for the senate.

When it comes to a question between accepting an income tax or a tax on corporation earnings, we think the people of the country will favor the latter. There is a great deal about the income tax that is open to criticism, although on the whole we believe it to be an equitable means of raising money by taxation. Against the taxing of corporation surplus earnings we can see no valid objection. It is an indirect tax that could be easily collected, whereas the income tax being a direct tax has always been the source of trouble wherever it has been adopted.

WILL THEY DO IT?

The citizens are now wondering whether the new board of police will carry out the wishes of the mayor and still find it possible to hold office under him and maintain their self-respect. Either Brown must modify his demands or the board must eat their peck of dirt and grovel at the feet of the man who was repudiated by Harris and MacBrayne. The only people who have made any gain out of the last change in the commission are the liquor dealers who were caught red-handed by the Harris forces and who undoubtedly would have lost their licenses had Simon B. and Wm. C. been able to hold office a few weeks longer and maintain their self-respect.

VERY UNREASONABLE.

It does seem unreasonable for any person with a particle of civic pride to protest against the trifling admission fee of twenty-five cents which is to be charged by the managers of the coming automobile carnival. The show will certainly be worth the price; and if there were no admission fee it would be practically impossible to control the crowd. Besides it is upon this twenty-five cents admission fee that the committee depends to make the enterprise a success. Few are so poor that they cannot contribute at least this small sum, and we hope we have heard the last of the protest against this nominal admission fee.

IMMIGRANTS SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED.

There seems to be a woful lack of system or method in distributing our immigrants to points where their services are needed and where they can do best for themselves.

The Italians, for instance, are perhaps the most skilful fruit growers in the world, and the wonder is that while so many of them come to make their homes in America few find their way to the great fruit growing sections. For some reason they crowd into the large metropolitan centers and eke out a precarious existence, while the fertile valleys of California and the banana groves of the sunny south are calling for just such men to come where fame and fortune await them.

WHERE WE LAG BEHIND.

Lowell is behind in many things in its municipal affairs, but nowhere are we so woful distanced as in our fire apparatus. It is time to do away with the horse driven hose carriages and engines. The automobile apparatus as now developed by several reputable manufacturers is practically perfect, and our entire department should be gradually equipped with machinery of this kind. By this means we can dispense with the services of many firemen who are drawing good salaries, or we could spread the same number of firemen over a greater area to operate nearly double the number of our present machines. Not only does the automobile reach the scene of a fire in much shorter time, but it is much more economical during idleness than are the horses. Horses must be fed and cared for when idle and they are constantly depreciating in value as they grow older. The auto-engine or truck costs nothing when not in use and is much more efficient when it is in use than any horse driven apparatus in existence today. We should sell off our old fire apparatus to the smaller towns and get something that is up to date.

FOOLISH PRANKS AT WEDDINGS.

The insane pranks of practical jokers, so common nowadays at wedding parties should be stopped. Public sentiment should frown upon these outrageous diversions until they are a thing of the past. Why should a newly married couple be made the subject of humiliating annoyance, and even placed in danger of draft or permanent injury at a time when they are setting out upon the most serious journey of their lives? When a man takes into his wife for better or worse, and when a young woman pledges herself to abide with her chosen husband until death do part them; when both join hands for the great battle of life, to be as strong through sunshine and rain, is it not an act of too much seriousness to themselves and of too much importance to society to be made the butt of practical jokers and ridiculous antics by relatives and friends to people? Matrimony is a sacrament and one of the most holy of sacraments, and it should be treated as such. A wedding may be made the occasion of joy of congratulation, of festivities of a proper kind, but never the occasion for turbulence, hilarity or excess of any nature. It is the duty of friends to encourage the young couple starting out on the most serious phase of life, and they should not be harassed or humiliated in a pernicious way on such an occasion. The attitude of the church in this matter is well known. The fault is with unthinking people who should be taught a lesson whenever they resort to such outrageous actions.

PEOPLE OF NOTE.

Chicago's board of education has opened a school exclusively for tubercular children, and so popular has it been from the start that ten others will be established, says The Daily News. "Thirty pupils—alert, enthusiastic, but physically abnormal children—sang and played and enjoyed their instruction; they laughed while they washed dishes and did chores at camp; grieved when they washed their teeth, and when it came to the snow, built an innovation not even thought they knew no bounds." The daily program has been laid out as follows:

8:30—Arrive at school.
9:00—Breakfast.
9:30—Wash teeth.
10:15—Breakfast.
10:45—Play.
11:00—Gardening.
12:45—Stories read.
1:45—Light gymnastics.
2:30—Athletic exercises.
3:30—Nurse duty.
4:15—Play teeth.
4:45—Recreational chores.
5:15—Shop at home.
6:45—Light gymnastics.
7:15—Dinner.
8:00—Story hour.
8:45—Return home.

In view of the great popular interest in the art of flying, Huland Maxmilian's views expressed in Automobile are noteworthy. He says: "Flying machines will never be able to work with dextrety or derring-do, driving explosives from the air. Even large quantities of light explosives dropped from an aeroplane will flattening, coast fortifications and the streets of large cities would be widely destructive."

In his speech at "Alice's Fund," he said: "The St. James' theatre, in Boston by the board of health of that city. Miss Hemenway's salary will be paid by the Women's Municipal League of Boston."

In response to the request of the American Bible Society that 100 men and 100 women subscribers each $1,000 to the endowment fund, 12 of each, including 21 in all, have already complied. In Bible Society Record, the society's monthly publication, attention is called to the fact that the 24 persons who have each subscribed $1,000 or more have really made up a sum of $49,200, and that the subscriptions of the remaining 83 men and 88 women who are to subscribe in this class are hopefully awaited. A good many collections were made on the Fourth of July for the endowment fund, and numbers of small gifts have been received by the treasurer. Of the $12,441.74 subscribed, $10,626.06 has been paid into the treasury. During the five months remaining before the end of the year, something more than $315,000 must be collected in order to secure the $600,000 offered by Mrs. Russell Sage.

Rev. William H. van Allen, S. T. D., has been spending much time among the African negroes while abroad. He lately preached in the little village church at Caldey, Wales, where there is a British colony, one of whom, Brother Edred, was a visitor in Boston a few years ago. From this place Dr. Van Allen's next visit was to be with the community of the resurrection in another English town.

News comes that Fritz Scheit is not leaving the stage now that she is the wife of John Fox Jr., but that she is to tour for a second season in "The Prima Donna."

James O'Neill, who for more than thirty years has been a star in his own right, will appear this season in the support of Miss Viola Allen in Liebler & Co.'s production, "The White Sister." Mr. O'Neill will have the part of Monsignor Saracenesca. Mr. O'Neill has become so completely identified with "Monte Cristo" that few persons, especially among the younger generation, remember the variety of parts he played prior to his appearance as Edmond Dantès. He made his stage debut in 1868 at the National theatre in Cincinnati, and possibly the most discussed appearance of his was made as the Saviour in the Passion Play, produced at the Grand Opera House, San Francisco, March 3, 1879.

The little music hall on 86th street near Third avenue, in New York, known as Zum Schwarzen Adler, is to open early in October as a somewhat pretentious German theatre, under the title of the Wintergarten Pariser, says the Dramatic Mirror. Adolph Philip and Hedwig Osterman, the latter a former member of the Irving Place Theatre company, are to head the new organization, which will include Anna Deering of Vienna, Anna Deger of Berlin, Theodor Wolf of Berlin, and Ludwig Arno, last year with the New theatre at Vienna. Farce and operetta will be given. For the last three winters the little theatre "At the Sign of the Black Eagle" was well patronized by the upper east side German population, who, for the price of a glass of beer or a cup of Vienna coffee could hear Die Lustige Witwe or Flamenca sung with much sincerity. Last fall Adolph Philip revived "The Corner Grocery" here and kept the old piece going for a long time. Redecorated and considerably remodeled, the house will open on October 4th with a farce entitled "Mama, Where Do You Live?"

Miss Leslie R. Hemenway has just been appointed inspector of milk and provisions in the south end district of Boston by the board of health of that city. Miss Hemenway's salary will be paid by the Women's Municipal League of Boston.

Spain's latest royal baby, named after its grandmother, Princess Beatrice, fair of feature, with blonde hair and blue eyes like its royal mother. It was baptized with Jordan water at the ancient font used centuries ago by St. Dominic.

Dr. D. K. Pearson is quoted as saying that he will give no more money to colleges which permit cigaret smoking among the students.

In response to the request of the American Bible Society that 100 men and 100 women subscribers each $1,000 to the endowment fund, 12 of each, including 21 in all, have already complied. In Bible Society Record, the society's monthly publication, attention is called to the fact that the 24 persons who have each subscribed $1,000 or more have really made up a sum of $49,200, and that the subscriptions of the remaining 83 men and 88 women who are to subscribe in this class are hopefully awaited. A good many collections were made on the Fourth of July for the endowment fund, and numbers of small gifts have been received by the treasurer. Of the $12,441.74 subscribed, $10,626.06 has been paid into the treasury. During the five months remaining before the end of the year, something more than $315,000 must be collected in order to secure the $600,000 offered by Mrs. Russell Sage.

He lately preached in the little village church at Caldey, Wales, where there is a British colony, one of whom, Brother Edred, was a visitor in Boston a few years ago. From this place Dr. Van Allen's next visit was to be with the community of the resurrection in another English town.

News comes that Fritz Scheit is not leaving the stage now that she is the wife of John Fox Jr., but that she is to tour for a second season in "The Prima Donna."

James O'Neill, who for more than thirty years has been a star in his own right, will appear this season in the support of Miss Viola Allen in Liebler & Co.'s production, "The White Sister." Mr. O'Neill will have the part of Monsignor Saracenesca. Mr. O'Neill has become so completely identified with "Monte Cristo" that few persons, especially among the younger generation, remember the variety of parts he played prior to his appearance as Edmond Dantès. He made his stage debut in 1868 at the National theatre in Cincinnati, and possibly the most discussed appearance of his was made as the Saviour in the Passion Play, produced at the Grand Opera House, San Francisco, March 3, 1879.

The little music hall on 86th street near Third avenue, in New York, known as Zum Schwarzen Adler, is to open early in October as a somewhat pretentious German theatre, under the title of the Wintergarten Pariser, says the Dramatic Mirror. Adolph Philip and Hedwig Osterman, the latter a former member of the Irving Place Theatre company, are to head the new organization, which will include Anna Deering of Vienna, Anna Deger of Berlin, Theodor Wolf of Berlin, and Ludwig Arno, last year with the New theatre at Vienna. Farce and operetta will be given. For the last three winters the little theatre "At the Sign of the Black Eagle" was well patronized by the upper east side German population, who, for the price of a glass of beer or a cup of Vienna coffee could hear Die Lustige Witwe or Flamenca sung with much sincerity. Last fall Adolph Philip revived "The Corner Grocery" here and kept the old piece going for a long time. Redecorated and considerably remodeled, the house will open on October 4th with a farce entitled "Mama, Where Do You Live?"

Gave an Easy Game to Worcester Yesterday

Umpire Mutt Fisher wound up the game yesterday with an exceedingly close decision on first base when some of the fans started to wind up Mutt's earthly career and it looked bad for Mutt's team for a few minutes. But a couple of Brozman's nearby buckoes were on hand and they ousted Mutt to a place of safety.

But it wasn't Mutt who lost the game for the pitchers were bad and a part of the infield worse. Wilkie was worse than that while Venable was just plain worse.

The fans were sore and a gentleman from Lawrence street who never missed a game became so enraged that he threatened his next door neighbor on the bleachers to a duel. Paul Keefe acted as peace-maker and the war finished like that of the Reds and Blues, in doubt.

A few boys threw bricks at Mutt's team but they all bounced back without going through. Mutt thought it was raining.

Pitcher Leonard had an off day for a starter and then Wilkie made four errors before the management had time to realize how tough he was. He might have made it a dozen only they whipped him out and put in Ulmer.

The game:

First Inning
Worcester got a man as far as third in the first inning but failed to score while the home team went out in one, two, three order. Shaw got a free pass and went to second on a sacrifice by Yerkes. Bradley hit to Wilkie dying at first, while Shaw traveled to third. Burkett hit a hot grounder which Fitzpatrick nailed and landed to first in time to get the runner.

In the latter half of the inning Venable hit to McTigue. Fitz struck out and Ulmer hit to Shaw and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 0, Worcester 0.

Second Inning

In the second Worcester scored one run. Logan hit to Wilkie and Russell died to Fitz. Rondeau drew a free pass and ad McTigue and Sime. A wild pitch allowed Rondeau to score. Shaw was hit by a pitched ball, hitting the bases. Yerkes hit to Venable, forcing McTigue.

After Leonard had given three men their base on balls in the second inning he was taken out and McIntyre substituted.

In the latter half of the inning Danzig got a base on balls. Howard sacrificed and Wilkie hit to Shaw and was out at first. Vinson was third out on strikes.

Score—Lowell 0, Worcester 0.

Third Inning

In the third Bradley had to Howard and Burkett hit to Fitz and was out at first. Logan hit to Wilkie who fumbled the ball and the runner got on. Russell got a single to right field, Rondeau drew a base on balls and McTigue hit to McTigue and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Worcester 1.

Fourth Inning

Worcester scored another run in the fourth inning.

Shaw got a fly to center to deep right field and Yerkes hit to McTigue. Sime tried to get third on the fly and a double play was made on Shaw and Shaw. Yerkes got hit by a pitched ball and Bradley hit to Venable, who made a bad throw to Danzig and Yerkes scored from first. Burkett died to Howard.

Danzig hit to Shaw and was out at first. Howard died out to Rondeau. Wilkie hit to Yerkes and was thrown out at first.

Score—Worcester 2, Lowell 1.

Fifth Inning

In the fifth Worcester got four men on base but failed to score. Logan got a single to right field. Russell drew a free pass and Rondeau hit to Howard. McTigue hit to Danzig who threw to second but Wilkie dropped the ball and the bases were filled. Shaw hit to Wilkie and Logan was thrown out at the plate. Shaw died to Ulmer.

In the latter half of the inning Venable hit to Bradley and was out at first. Histon hit to Shaw and was second out at first. McTigue hit to Sime and was out at first.

Score—Worcester 2, Lowell 1.

Sixth Inning

Errors by Wilkie resulted in Worcester scoring another run in the sixth inning. Yerkes sent a fly towards Wilkes and the latter dropped it. Bradley sent Yerkes to second on a sacrifice. Burkett hit to Wilkie but the latter allowed the ball to go through him and Burkett was safe at first while Yerkes scored. Logan hit to Danzig and the latter ranged first and threw to second but his throw was bad and Burkett was safe. Russell was third out on a fly to Venable.

He pulled the score in the latter half of the sixth inning. Venable died to Rondeau and Histon hit to Danzig. Yerkes sent the ball to the center field for a three base and Ulmer followed with a three base and a deep right, scoring Fitz. Danzig struck out. Howard hit over Shaw's head and Ulmer scored. Howard struck out and Wilkie was third out on strikes.

Score—Lowell 2, Worcester 2.

Lowell didn't score after the sixth while Worcester got one in the seventh and another in the ninth.

WORCESTER

Score—Worcester 2, Lowell 1.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

Following are Saturday's scores in the State Brook League:

Graniteville 5, Brookline 2.

West Chelmsford 1, Forest Village 4.

A BITTER ATTACK PRESIDENT TAFT

Made on Speaker Cannon by Congressman Fowler

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Representative Charles N. Fowler of Elizabeth, N. J., formerly chairman of the house committee of banking and finance, who was one of the leading instigators in the last session of Congress, issued yesterday in the shape of an open letter a scathing attack upon Speaker Cannon in which he repeats some characteristically profane remarks made by the speaker concerning certain financial legislation.

It is one of the hottest topics ever passed out of "Uncle Joe" Fowler's mouth, no attempt to be parliamentary in his language. The attack is probably the opening gun in a campaign in which all the instigators will join for the purpose of eliminating Cannon from the race for the speakership at the next time the office is about to be filled.

Following is a part of the Fowler attack directed to "Uncle Joe":

"Do you suppose, sir, that I did not appreciate fully the probable consequences of my act when I undertook to play my part in securing the reform of the banking laws? Do you suppose that I was not aware of your ignorance, prejudices, moldy bank, and ignorant, partial, pro-business, and that, like all such characters possessing absolute power, malice is the mainspring of your action under such circumstances?"

Fowler relates the fact that Cannon opposed Fowler's plan to avert the panic of 1907, and adds:

"You literally headed the idea of a panic, and inquired: 'What the hell does this howling in Wall street amount to?' The country doesn't care what happens to those dead speculators. Every-thing is all right out west and around town. The country doesn't need any legislation. Then I don't take any stock in your dead asset currency."

"As usual, your ignorance and prejudices were all sufficient then. But the panic came, as even now who had any intelligence on the subject knew it would."

"Now, sir, mark this. The bill prepared by the representative bankers which met with only your anger and contempt, and though as the bankers' bill provided for a 5 per cent. of credit currency, called 'the first bill,' a national bank guaranteed every dollar. 'If that bill had been on the statute books when the pressure came there would have been no general suspension of banks throughout the country,' he

Wants the Army Strength Reduced by Cut of 8000 Men

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—The report that the strength of the army will be reduced to 86,000 men was confirmed at the war department yesterday. Adjt.-Gen. Ainsworth said that President Taft had requested the reduction in the enlisted military forces some time ago.

The decrease in the size of the army, the adjutant-general said, would be brought about in accordance with the announced policy of economy in government administration that has been pursued since the inauguration of President Taft.

The saving that will result from cutting out the president's order has been estimated to be $8,000,000, figuring on the assumption that it costs the nation $100 a year to keep an enlisted man fully paid, equipped and rationed.

"There was no secret about the president's order," said Gen. Ainsworth. "It was to take effect July 1, 1910, the beginning of the next fiscal year. The order will be carried out in the natural course of events and without any hardship or unusual conditions. Recently the strength of the army was $8,000,000. It will be reduced to $6,000."

"Already it has been reduced some extent through the reduction of enlistments. This process will continue. A year or two ago during the panic, recruits were plentiful and soldiers whose terms of enlistment expired promptly re-enlisted. Now this is not the case. Enlistments are expiring rapidly and many men are obtaining other employment. There will be fewer recruits and the enlisted force will gradually drop to $8,000, probably during the present fiscal year."

It is said at the war department that the decrease in the military strength will be evenly distributed among the various branches of the service, so that the efficiency of the army will not be impaired.

In the case of Billy Kett the police received $100, which, upon the advice of his sister, brother, he had received before leaving home. For the past several days, reports of soldiers within a mile of Fitchburg have been frequent. The most recent was when a man who, upon returning to stop his carriage, received three bullet holes through it, before setting out of the range. This caused the town authorities to get into action, but they have not succeeded in connecting up the highwaymen.

"Already it has been reduced some extent through the reduction of enlistments. This process will continue. A year or two ago during the panic, recruits were plentiful and soldiers whose terms of enlistment expired promptly re-enlisted. Now this is not the case. Enlistments are expiring rapidly and many men are obtaining other employment. There will be fewer recruits and the enlisted force will gradually drop to $8,000, probably during the present fiscal year."

It is said at the war department that the decrease in the military strength will be evenly distributed among the various branches of the service, so that the efficiency of the army will not be impaired.

"In the case of Billy Kett the police received $100, which, upon the advice of his sister, brother, he had received before leaving home. For the past several days, reports of soldiers within a mile of Fitchburg have been frequent. The most recent was when a man who, upon returning to stop his carriage, received three bullet holes through it, before setting out of the range. This caused the town authorities to get into action, but they have not succeeded in connecting up the highwaymen.

Have Been Ordered to Scene of the Riot Near Pittsburg

PITTSBURG, Aug. 24.—The second day of the reign of martial law in McKeever Rocks, the scene of Sunday night's turbulent disorders, an order about the plant of the Pressed Steel car company arrived well for a temporary truce of hostilities.

The arrival of additional state police under command of Captain Robinson of the Wiltshire barracks early today evidently had a quieting effect upon the foreign strikers and their sympathizers.

From now on mounted troopers and deputy sheriffs will patrol Schenaville and the car plant day and night, rendering well nigh impossible a recurrence of Sunday night's untrammelled violence.

The arrest of suspicious persons will continue today according to a statement made by Captain Marsh. An additional box car full was prepared before dawn as the two long in use are overcrowded with 82 prisoners.

The funeral of the miners will be held in the Greek Catholic church, McKee Rocks, today. Deputy sheriffs will be present in the church and graveyard.

The bodies of Troopers John Smith and John L. Williams were shipped to their homes early today, the former to Centralia, Pa., and the latter to Pueblo, Colo. The caskets were draped with wreaths and floral tributes, remembrances from the state and county authorities as well as from the contrabands.

LOSS IS $7000 MAXWELL KILLED

Post Office at Plaistow, N. H. Destroyed

He Was Shot By Sheriff Johnson

HAVERHILL, Aug. 24.—A two story and a half wooden building at Plaistow, N. H., occupied by a general store and post office on the ground floor was burned early this morning with a loss of $7000. The second story was occupied by the owner, Ned F. Steper, but he and his wife and family were away. The fire is supposed to have been accidentally set by burglars who were robbing the Sheiner furniture shop. Help was summoned from this city, a steamer being despatched over the road but a volunteer brigade prevented the flames from spreading to property adjoining.

GO TO THE RESCUE GETS A DIVORCE

Don't Wait Till It's Too Late—Follow the Example of a Lowell Citizen.

Decree Granted to Mrs. Helen K. Gould

Rescue the ailing back. If it keeps on ailing, trouble comes. Backache is kidney aches. If you neglect the kidneys, warning! Look out for urinary troubles.

This Lowell citizen will show you how to go to the rescue.

Mrs. Mary Lahiff, living at 15 Franklin court, Lowell, Mass., says: "Kidney trouble caused me a great deal of suffering. I had a constant backache and mornings would be so lame that I could hardly get around. I used various and various remedies but nothing helped me and when I read about Dr. Kelly's Kidney Pills, I immediately purchased a box at Ellingswood & Clark's drug store and began their use. The backaches soon ceased, the action of the kidney secretions was made more regular and I could rest well at night. I am thoroughly convinced that Dr. Kelly's Kidney Pills is a remedy that will do exactly what is claimed for it."

STATE CONSTABULARY

The arrival of the state police on the scene prevented the conclusion of the mob's scheme.

Twenty-five men were arrested and put into the box car pens by nightfall. The men who resisted were manhandled to the troopers' horses and dragged through the streets to the plant's entrance.

At noon the great bell of the Catholic cathedral at McKeever Rocks began ringing. This was kept up for two hours and then the bells were ordered silent by state troopers, because it was pointed out, such a demonstration at the present only went toward agitating the strikers.

Yesterday strikers' wives besieged Lt. Smith of the state constabulary for news of their missing husbands. The lieutenant had ten hats gathered from "sheoey corner" after the conflict Sunday. Several of the women claimed that the hats belonged to their husbands or sons and wept copiously over the head gear.

The strikers seemed awed and gloomy last night at the extent of Sunday night's fatalities. The gloom over the little car camping village is also attributed to the fact that the funeral of a man who was a victim of Sunday night's rioting. The announcement was also made yesterday that the government will file the perjury charge against President Hoffstot and Foreman Samuel Cohen of the Pressed Steel Car company to the extent of making a thorough investigation of the allegations made by Albert Vans, who swore to the charge before United States Commissioner Lindsay on Saturday.

The strikers' wives were viewed with disfavor by the troopers yesterday. Several of them, carrying large baskets, were made to turn over the contents so that they might be carrying nothing contraband into the houses.

THE LOWELL SUN

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

There is one thing and only one that can be said in favor of President Eliot's new religion: It is better than none at all. Better try again, Prexy.

It appears by the news despatches that General Adelbert Ames succeeded in beating Taft at golf. Very good indeed, but the great question is whether his son will be able to beat Henry Cabot Lodge for the Senate.

When it comes to a question between accepting an income tax or a tax on corporation earnings, we think the people of the country will favor the latter. There is a great deal about the income tax that is open to criticism, although on the whole we believe it to be an equitable means of raising money by taxation. Against the taxing of corporation surplus earnings we can see no valid objection. It is an indirect tax that could be easily collected, whereas the income tax being a direct tax has always been the source of trouble wherever it has been adopted.

WILL THEY DO IT?

The citizens are now wondering whether the new board of police will carry out the wishes of the mayor and still do it possible to hold office under him and maintain their self-respect. Either Brown must modify his demands or the board must eat their peck of dirt and grovel at the feet of the man who was repudiated by Harris and MacBrayne. The only people who have made any gain out of the last change in the commission are the liquor dealers who were caught red-handed by the Harris forces, and who undoubtedly would have lost their licenses had Simon B. and Winnie C. been able to hold office a few weeks longer and maintain their self-respect.

VERY UNREASONABLE.

It does seem unreasonable for any person with a particle of civic pride to protest against the trifling admission fee of twenty-five cents which is to be charged by the managers of the coming automobile carnival. The show will certainly be worth the price; and if there were no admission fee it would be practically impossible to control the crowd. Besides it is upon this twenty-five cents admission fee that the committee depends to make the enterprise a success. Few are so poor that they cannot contribute at least this small sum, and we hope we have heard the last of the protest against this nominal admission fee.

IMMIGRANTS SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED.

There seems to be a woful lack of system or method in distributing our immigrants to points where their services are needed and where they can do best for themselves.

The Italians, for instance, are perhaps the most skillful fruit growers in the world, and the wonder is that while so many of them come to make their homes in America few find their way to the great fruit growing sections. For some reason they crowd into the large metropolitan centers and eke out a precarious existence, while the fertile valleys of California and the bally groves of the sunny south are calling for just such men to come where fame and fortune await them.

WHERE WE LAG BEHIND.

Lowell is behind in many things in its municipal affairs, but nowhere are we so wofully distanced as in our fire apparatus. It is time to do away with the horse driven hose carriages and engines. The automobile apparatus as now developed by several reputable manufacturers is practically perfect, and our entire department should be gradually equipped with machinery of this kind. By this means we can dispense with the services of many firemen who are drawing good salaries, or we could spread the same number of firemen over a greater area to operate nearly double the number of our present machines. Not only does the automobile reach the scene of a fire in a much shorter time, but it is much more economical during idleness than are the horses. Horses must be fed and cared for when idle and they are constantly depreciating in value as they grow older. The auto-engine or truck costs nothing when not in use and is much more efficient when it is in use than any horse-driven apparatus in existence today. We should sell off our old fire apparatus to the smaller towns and get something that is up to date.

FOOLISH PRANKS AT WEDDINGS.

The insane pranks of practical jokers, so common nowadays, at wedding parties should be stopped. Public sentiment should frown upon these outrageous diversions until they are a thing of the past. Why should a newly married couple be made the subject of humiliating annoyance, and even placed in danger of death or permanent injury at a time when they are setting out upon the most serious journey of their lives? When a man takes unto himself a wife for better or worse, and when a young woman pledges herself to abide with her chosen husband until death do part them; when both join hands for the great battle of life, to be won through sunshine and rain, is it not an obscenity of too much seriousness to themselves and of too much importance to society to be made the butt of practical jokers and ridiculous antics by frivolous and lifeladen people? Matrimony is a sacrament and one of the most holy of sacraments and it should be treated as such. A wedding may be made the occasion of joy, of congratulations, of festivities of a proper kind, but never the occasion for turbulence, hilarity or excesses of any nature. It is the duty of friends to encourage the young couple starting out on the most serious phase of life, and they should not be harassed or humiliated in a public way on such an occasion. The attitude of the church in this matter is well known. The fault is with unthinking people who should be taught a lesson whenever they resort to such outrageous actions.

PEOPLE OF NOTE.

Chicago's board of education has opened a school exclusively for tubercular children, and so popular has it been from the start that ten others will be established, says The Daily News. "Thirty pupils—alert, enthusiastic, but 'physically abnormal'—including crippled and played and enjoyed their instruction; they laughed while they washed dishes and did chores at camp; gazed when they washed their teeth, and when it came to the snow bath, it was an innovation not even imagined, their joy knew no bounds. The daily program has been laid out as follows:

8:30—Arrive at school.
9:00—Breakfast.
9:30—Wash teeth.
9:45—Dish washing.
10:15—Play.
10:30—Gardening.
10:45—Sports at table.
11:00—Light gymnastics.
11:45—Breakfast exercises.
12:30—Noon meal.
1:15—Brush teeth.
2:15—Sleeping hour.
3:15—Light gymnastics.
4:15—Recreation.
4:30—Supper.
5:30—Shower bath.
6:45—Return home.

In view of the great popular interest in the art of flying, Hudson Maxine's views, expressed in "Aviation," are noteworthy. He says: "Flying machines will never be able to avoid wide destruction by dropping explosives from the air. Even large quantities of high explosives dropped from an aeroplane upon battle-fields, coast fortifications and in streets of large cities would not be widely destructive."

Rehearsal of Sir Arthur Pinero's latest play, "Mid-Channel," has begun in London at the St. James' theater. In this country it will help to further the ambitions of Ethel Barrymore, who will act the leading woman's part.

In response to the request of the American Birds Society that ten men and 100 women subscribe each $1000 to the endowment fund, 12 of each, including 34 in all, have already complied. In its 16th Society Record, the society's monthly publication, attention is called to the fact that the 24 persons who have been subscriber $1000 or more have really made up a sum of $49,000, and that the subscriptions of the remaining 85 men and 88 women who are to contribute in this class are hopefully awaited. A good many collections were made on the Fourth of July for the endowment fund, and numbers of small gifts have been received by the treasurer. Of the $122,441.54 subscribed, $109,328.00 has been paid into the treasury. During the months remaining before the end of the year, subscriptions more than $315,000 must be collected in order to secure the $500,000 offered by Mrs. Russell Sage.

MAYOR STOY

REFUSED TO RECEIVE NOTICE TO CLOSE SALOONS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 24.—Interest in the reform movement in this city was intensified yesterday when Mayor F. H. Stoy officially refused to receive a notice from Attorney General Wilson ordering him to close Atlantic City saloons on Sunday. The notice was served upon him in his office by David Johnson, a member of the reformers' organization. The mayor declared that he knew the contents of the notice, which gives the names and addresses of 38 saloons and hotel proprietors who are alleged to have sold liquor on three Sundays of the recent month, and he refused to accept service even after the contents of the paper and the signature of the attorney general had been read to him.

Under the state law the refusal to act within ten days on an order issued by the attorney general makes a city official liable to indictment for a misdemeanor. The heads of the reform movement declared "so right that they will cause the arrest of the mayor if he refuses to acknowledge the notice issued by the attorney general." Reform lawyers claim that the open refusal of the mayor to receive a document signed by the attorney general does not bar him from charges of contempt of state courts. Mayor Stoy refused to discuss the matter last night.

HURRICANE WARNINGS

PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 24.—For the second time in the history of the city hurricane warnings were shown last night by the weather bureau. They have caused much uneasiness among the bay shore residents who fear a repetition of the hurricane of three years ago. Vessels at anchor have put out extra anchors, while the entire fishing fleet, with many of the larger tugs and steamers and two or three crosswise steamers have gone across the bay and anchored in a cove.

A wind blowing from the southwest at 50 miles per hour prevailed all day and last night lowering clouds with exceptional high tide gave warning of the approach of the hurricane.

The winds subsided last night within the sanitary rail and elevated slightly so that a good view can be secured of the dead priests floating on the main aisle. The body is elevated in its purple robe and in addition to the purple robe of the priest a set of four candles each of the four other sides of the casket. The simple black wood of all masses for the dead have been placed about the altar.

This evening at 5 o'clock, office of the diocese will be held in the church and all of the priests of the city who superintend parishes will be present.

The body was removed from the church and placed in a casket.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock with solemn funeral mass.

All of the priests of the archdiocese have been invited to attend and it is expected that Archbishop O'Connell and Bishop Brady will be present. Very Rev. M. J. Flaherty, O. M. I., president of the board, will be in attendance. The interment will be in the Cemetery of Pensacola.

The active members will be members of the Holy Name society.

That's the Time Neuralgic Anodyne Will Stop the Pain

Accidents will happen. People will get bruised and cut and burned and scalded. And Neuralgic Anodyne is made just for such unfortunate people. It relieves at once; draws the poison from the wounds; kills the germs; purifies the wounds; drives away the soreness; and heals in a short time.

It is also a wonderful external remedy for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore back and muscles, and for headache, toothache, sore throat or chest it acts like magic.

And for summer complaints, such as diarrhea, dysentery, cramps and colic, it is used wherever it is known.

A bottle only costs 25 cents at all general drugstores, and very economical has the preparation to have Neuralgic Anodyne on hand.

AUTO WRECK HAS STARTED PROTEST AGAINST SPEED CONTESTS

WRECK OF AUTO AT INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 24.—Greater safeguards against accidents and changes in automobile racing rules will be voted, it is believed, from the accidents at Indianapolis in the contests which inaugurated the newest and biggest of motor racing tracks. Seven men gave their lives as part of the price paid for the lowering of records, and at least fifteen persons met with serious injuries. In one race the driver and his mechanic were buried against a wall in front of him or what was believed to be his car.

With their machine, and they were killed almost immediately. One of the men connected officially with the races declared that never again would one of his cars be entered in a race. "It's not worth half the price," he said. The dust raised by the whirling machines was so blinding, asserted one of the drivers, that he could not tell where he was going at a record breaking rate when he was in front of him or what was behind him. He expected any minute his machine were buried against a wall in the ruins of a competitor's car.

Cutica Soap (5c), Cutica Ointment (9c) and Cutica Remedy (25c) in the form of Cuticle Gated Pills (2c per vial of 50) are sold by the Cutica Manufacturing Company, 130 Columbia Ave., Boston, Mass. 25c per vial. Cutica Book, instilled free, authorizes the correct and treatment of the skin and hair.

BROUGHT REST, SLEEP AND A PERFECT CURE

"Words cannot express the awful skin disease I suffered with. My whole body was covered with blisters. My head broke out so that I could not comb my hair. For a month or more I lived with a terrible sore throat. When I should lie down at night my eyes would stick together before opening them each morning. I scarcely could see for my eyes had failed me from the effect of the skin disease. I tried three doctors, but they gave me no relief and then I tried all kinds of things that I thought would do me good but I could find nothing. I was a perfect prisoner with the awful humor."

"One of my neighbors begged me to try the Cutica Remedies, and I made up my mind to try them but not thinking that I would ever be cured. I would bathe in a hot bath with Cutica Soap and then apply Cutica Ointment. I found relief in a few days and in a month you could hardly see a spot on my face. I felt like a new person. When I first began to use the Cutica Remedies they cooled the itching flesh and brought me real good sleep and rest at night. I had suffered fully two years with the skin disease but now I am a well woman and in good health. Every skin sufferer to use the Cutica Remedies. I cannot praise Cutica enough because I thought that I would never get well again. Mrs. Cordelia C. Pitts, Newborn, Ga., Nov. 24 and Dec. 21, '08."

Keeping the Hair

To prevent dry, thin and falling hair, receive dietetic, airy bathing and irritation and promote the growth and beauty of the hair frequent shampoos with Cutica Soap or occasional dressings with Cutica are usually effective when all other methods fail. Special and full directions accompany each package of Cutica.

MAYOR HIBBARD

Is Arraigned By the Finance Board

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—The finance commission, in a communication to the mayor, given out last night, takes to task the city council, Mayor Hibbard and "certain department heads" for failing to obey the recommendations of the old commission and reduce the tax rate below $16.50, announced for this year.

The commission points out that, because of the failure to retrench, the appropriations have reached the highest mark in the history of the city. Comparative tables are given of appropriations in various years, and the fact that those of this year are $1,661,567.50 larger than those of 1905-06, it says, cannot be explained by the increase in the number of departments or by the increased payments on account of debt.

The board then proceeds to show the part the city council played, and cites the recommendations of the mayor, as contrasted with the sums eventually appropriated, and which he accepted.

Early in the day the board submitted before it the principal assessors, and they were closed in the room in the Tremont building for a couple of hours. The assessors are John J. Murphy, chairman of the board; Secretary Charles E. Folsom; Fred H. Temple; Edward B. Daily; James Durkin; Samuel Hichborne and John H. Donovan, there being two vacancies. Neither the members of the finance commission nor those of the assessing board would say what was discussed.

AEROPLANE FLIGHT

May Not be Made Because of the High Winds

PARIS, France, Aug. 24.—A black flag snapping from a tall staff over the entrance to qualify on Sunday. Curtiss and Corliss F. Bishop, the representatives of the Aero Club of America protest against the aerodrome and a signal that they are flying energetically. They declared that it had been distinctly agreed that Curtiss could qualify any day. Further, persons who assembled on the Béthune field this morning for the third day of aviation week the fact that no qualified but failed to complete three rounds and that this penalty had not been applied to Bleriot and the other French aviators. The committee thereupon reconsidered its decision and after receiving Curtiss' word of honor regarding the understanding withdrew the ruling.

Commander Frederick C. Davis and Major T. Bentley Mott, representatives of the American naval and military attaches as well as the other foreign attaches who have come down to Biarritz are interested chiefly in the endurance and weight-carrying tests as these are the main considerations from the military viewpoint. They all seem to regard the Wright models and the Biplane as superior in these respects.

AS INDEPENDENT

District Attorney Jerome to Make Fight

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—William Travers Jerome yesterday formally announced himself a candidate for reelection as district attorney.

The experts differ as to the respective merits of the biplane and monoplane and the various types of machines in each class but it is unanimously held that the future of aviation depends upon the perfection of the motor. The biplane, revolving self-cooling motor, developing fifty horse-power and weighing only 150 pounds, employed by M. Benoît-Vaillant, has attracted much favorable attention. The experts agree that the biplanes thus far have demonstrated marked superiority, stability and possibilities of control in wind as compared to the monoplane. No monoplanes have turned out except in absolutely calm weather.

The brilliant performance last evening of Glenn H. Curtiss, the American aviator who covered a lap six and one-fifth miles, in 8 minutes, 55.25 seconds, makes him a favorite for the big event of the meeting, the International cup but there is little actual betting. This event will take place Saturday.

An unfortunate misunderstanding arose yesterday after Curtiss had completed his flight. The committee decided to penalize him one-twelfth of

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

A large audience was present at the Opera House last evening and greatly appreciated the opening production of "A Girl of the Mountain," which began a three nights' engagement at the theatre.

The play is of a clean melodrama type, with its locale alternating between the Siskiyou mountains and New York City. It is very interesting throughout. The principal female character is that of "Nellie Bond," which is adequately played by Miss Price. Miss Price plays her part in an excellent manner and she is ably assisted in the production by a gay cast of characters which includes the following:

"Kia-wa-na," an Indian girl, Miss Hamlin; "Roy Vernon," F. N. Chapman; "Richard Thurston," F. M. McCormick; "Stephen Belder," W. G. Gage; "Julia Blair," Mrs. Alexander Leonard; "Vinnie Lambeth," Alice Davis; "Victor Longhetti," H. J. Hartnett, and "Eph," a colored character, James Mack. A real mountain boy named "Solomon" appears in the play.

The play will be given again this evening and also tomorrow, Saturday and evening.

BILLY THE KID

The locale of the new play, "Billy the Kid," is the prison of the state of New Mexico, presenting a scene placed out in New Mexico and is said to be an extremely good atmospheric picture of that part of the country, its people and its manners of living. There is a strong story told in the play, one that is full of adventure and with a strong cast interest and variety of scenes. The play is by L. D. Johnson, takes the part of the hero, and they say the parts suit him perfectly. "Billy the Kid" begins a three days' engagement here at the Opera House next Thursday night.

STUBBON CINDYELLA

Stubbom have the people looking forward to the coming of an attraction with greater anticipation than what seems to have been shown for the musical musical comedy "A Stubbom Cindyella," the production that was the greatest sensation during the past season. It is the musical comedy at the Princess Theatre, Clinton, for the second year, where it received the unanimous verdict from the dramatic critics as the best musical comedy ever produced, and the six consecutive months that it played to capacity houses at the Broadway theatre, N. Y., and its successful runs in the Colonial theatre, Boston, and Philadelphia is proof of its great arousing powers.

QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER

A play that will win the sympathy and interest of its audience and well merit the great success it is having is "Quincy Adams Sawyer," which will be seen here at the opera house. Nearly everybody is familiar with the novel of the same name, and it is promised that this dramatization of it will retain that simple, pure, country charm which gave the book such popularity. It is laid in the year 1850, in Massachusetts, where "Quincy Adams Sawyer," a wealthy Boston young man, comes to build in his health in the country. The girls admire him and the country boys become jealous and often run him out of town.

Mr. Sawyer considers himself in such a way that he finally wins the love and respect of the whole community, and even turns around his enemies.

MAX BODDIE

Miss May Robson will be seen on the stage of the opera house soon in the charming comedy "The Revengement of Max Boddie." Miss Robson is well known in the theatre going public, and the role of Aunt Mary in this comedy she will have a chance to better her supporting company. The supporting company is a fine one. Her leading man is Jack Steeves, and the remains of the cast are drawn from many well-known and prominent people. The same cast and production will be here as played at the Garden Theatre, New York, last season.

STAR THEATRE

"Hurray, the amateurs are back from the country." They will be at the Star Theatre tonight and make merry. The papers they cut up won't offend any patron because the management won't allow undefined comedy. There are fat and thin, long and short, funny and dramatic and good and bad amateurs, but you laugh at all of them.

New pictures will be shown tomorrow. A new talking picture and two new songs will be on Thursday's bill and on Friday there will be another complete change of pictures.

Hear Madam Tressler, the blind soprano.

THEATRE VOYONS

Within a few weeks the patrons of the Theatre Voyons will be greatly surprised at the big changes to be made at that popular play house. The entire interior and exterior will be decorated, a considerable change will be made in the seating arrangements and many more new electric lights added to the already large gas power illumination in the house. All this required, renovation and additional will be made during the night and early morning so that performances will not be interrupted in the least. One feature already completed is a newly surfaced stage. This serves as the best of plaster and is covered with a secret composition that there is no brilliancy of the picture, but it is good. The program today includes "The Red Jacked Minx," "The Brownest Married," and "His Wife's Visit."

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

"The Harvard Girl," a musical comedy of the latter sort, was presented at the Lakeview theatre by a popular Harvard company in a suitable manner last night. The company is the leaders of the theatre for the remainder of the week, and from its presentation last night showed great audience success.

It is of the college sort, and is a lecture light, very witty, with a catchy music interspersed between the scenes. It is a sort of comedy that passes under the name of "light comedy" in two acts of the "light music" department, and is well staged. There are nearly a dozen well-known players in each act, so that there is sufficient to satisfy the most exacting taste.

The presenting company is as good as could be found in the town, the individual has been well trained with great care to the end, and the arrangements for such second stage light and lecture well arranged. As for the entertainment, it was good, and the audience was pleased to have a good time.

LOWELL PLAYING

Gave an Easy Game to Worcester Yesterday

Capie Matt Faley wound up the game yesterday with an easy, close decision on first base, as the manager of the team said that Matt's carefully contrived ball had hit for out, but a few moments later, for the manager of the team, a couple of Indians running bases were on hand, and they were in full play of safety.

But it wasn't Matt, who knew the game, for the pitchers were bad enough to be the field's wags. Worcester was better than that, while Valencia was right plain worse.

The fans were still at a standstill from Lawrence's strict rules, never raised a name to name, so that it is to be understood that most of the play on the diamond to day is to be given to the manager of the team, who has not even a name to give. The manager of the team, who has not even a name to give, is to be given to the manager of the team, who has not even a name to give.

A few last, tattered, broken, Matt team legs all day, to be given to the manager of the team, who has not even a name to give.

Pitcher Leonard had an easy day for a starter, and then Wilkie, and then errors before the manager of the team, to realize how tough it was. The right hand made it a dozen only they whiffed him out and put in Valencia.

The game:

First Inning

Worcester got a man's run as third in the first inning but failed to score with the home team went out in one, two, three, four, Shaw got a free pass, and went to second on a sacrifice by Yerkes, Bradley hit to Wilkie, dying at first, while Shaw twisted to third. Burkett hit a hot grounder which Farnham nabbed and handed to first in time to get the runner.

In the latter half of the inning Valencia hit to McNamee, Fitz struck out and Farnham hit to Shaw and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 6, Worcester 0.

Second Inning

In the second Worcester scored one run. Logan tied to Wilkie and Russell, flied to Fitz. Rondan drew a free pass, and went to second on a sacrifice by Yerkes, Bradley hit to Wilkie, dying at first, while Shaw twisted to third. Burkett hit a hot grounder which Farnham nabbed and handed to first in time to get the runner.

In the latter half of the inning Valencia hit to McNamee, Fitz struck out and Farnham hit to Shaw and was out at first.

After Leonard had given three men their base on balls in the second inning, he was taken out and McNamee substituted.

In the latter half of the inning Farnham got a base on balls, Howard sacrificed and Wilkie hit to Shaw and was out at first. Vinson was third out on strikes.

Score—Lowell 6, Worcester 0.

Third Inning

In the third Bradley flied to Howard and Burkett hit to Fitz and was out at first. Logan hit to Wilkie who fanned the ball and the runner got out. Russell got a single to right field. Rondan drew a base on balls and McNamee hit McNamee and was out at first.

Lowell tied the score in the latter half of the inning. Hutton got a base on balls and McNamee struck out. Hutton stole second and Vinson followed with a strike out. Fitz hit to center field scoring Hutton. Farnham hit to Silve, who knocked down the ball and Logan threw him out at first.

Score—Lowell 6, Worcester 0.

Fourth Inning

Worcester scored another run in the fourth inning.

Silve got a two-bagger to the right field and Shaw hit to McNamee. Silve tried to get third on the left field, but the play was made on Silve and Shaw. Yerkes hit by a pitched ball and Bradley hit to McNamee, who made a half throw to Daning and McNamee scored from first. Burkett hit to Howard and Logan threw him out at first.

Score—Worcester 2, Lowell 6.

Fifth Inning

In the fifth Worcester got a run on base but failed to score. Logan got a single to right field and Russell drew a free pass and Rondan got a free base. Hutton hit to McNamee and was out at first. Logan hit to Wilkie and was out at first.

A BITTER ATTACK PRESIDENT TAFT WERE HELD UP

Made on Speaker Cannon by Wants the Army Strength Reduced by Cut of 8000 Men

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Representative Charles N. Fowler of Elizabeth, N. J., formerly chairman of the house committee on banking and finance, who was one of the leading insurgents in the last session of congress, issued yesterday in the shape of an open letter a scathing attack upon Speaker Cannon, in which he repeats some characteristic and provocative remarks made by the speaker concerning certain financial legislation.

It is one of the hottest topics ever passed out to "Uncle Joe." Mr. Fowler makes no attempt to be particularly in his language. The attack is probably the opening gun in a campaign in which all the insurgents will join for the purpose of eliminating Cannon from the race for the speakership at the next time the office is about to be filled.

Following is a part of the Fowler argument directed to "Uncle Joe":

"Do you suppose sir, that I did not appreciate fully the probable consequences of my act when I undertook to play my part in securing this reform of the banking laws? Do you suppose that I was not aware of your ignorance, prejudice, inordinate concern, favoritism, partial preferences, and that like all such characters possessing absolute power, nation is the mainspring of your action under such circumstances?"

Fowler recites the fact that Cannon opposed Fowler's plan to avert the panic of 1907, and adds:

"You literally hooted the idea of a panic, and inquired: 'What do you do with this hooting in Wall street amount to?'

"The country doesn't care what happens to those dead speculators. Every thing is all right out west and around Danville. The country doesn't need any legislation. Then I don't take any stock in your dead asset currency."

"As usual, your ignorance and prejudice were all sufficient then. But that paper came in every mail which had any intelligence on the subject and now it's void."

general breaking down of the exchanges, all the banks could more than have met the demand for currency.

"I am sure that all the trustworthy authorities will say that one-half and possibly two-thirds of all the losses in the crisis of 1907, direct and indirect, were due to the fact that there was a general suspension of bank payments and complete breaking down of exchanges; that the public confidence was so shocked as to destroy complete normal conditions for many months.

"This is your record upon our financial and currency legislation. I challenge you to find a single living man who so rotton a one. It is a record of ignorance or political cowardice, of a disgraceful hybrid of the two. And yet sir, you assume to dictate the currency and financial legislation of a civilized country."

After accusing Cannon of conspiring with Senator Aldrich to pack the committee on the tariff bill against the house bill, Mr. Fowler charges:

"I have gone into these details to lay bare your miserable, contemptible falsehoods, and to expose your duplicity, treachery, and perfidy to the legislative body over which you preside, whose bill you were bound to defend and not to destroy."

"Is it possible that you, the responsible speaker of the house of representatives, and Sen. Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee of the senate, agreed into a conspiracy to secure the adoption of the senate bill in general, and the highest rates in both bills throughout, for the purpose of discrediting the president by repudiating his pledges and the platform of the republican party?"

"Taking all the facts as they appear in the case, a lawyer in intelligent criminal lawyer would say he looks like a conspiracy. You seem to have assumed the conditions with accuracy and to have calculated the distances to the various points of agreement carefully, and you seemed to be almost on the point of consummating your understanding when the great unknown factor became the determining factor."

"Though this scheme failed it exhibits Cannonism in its highest and most perfect development. I challenge you to cite in all your political history a more disgraceful and disreputable piece of business, unless, perchance, you cite something in your own career of which the people are not yet advised."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—The report that the strength of the army will be reduced to 80,000 men was confirmed at the war department yesterday. Adj. Gen. Ainsworth said that President Taft had requested the reduction in the enlisted military force.

The decrease in the size of the army, the adjutant general said, would be brought about in accordance with the budgeted policy of economy in the government administration that has been pursued since the inauguration of President Taft.

The saving that will result from carrying out the president's order has been estimated to be $4,000,000, according to the assumption that it costs the nation $1,000 a year to keep an enlisted man fully paid, equipped and enlisted.

"There was no secret about the president's order," said Gen. Ainsworth. "It was to take effect July 1, 1909, the beginning of the next fiscal year. The order will be carried out in the natural course of events and without any hardship or unusual conditions. Recently the strength of the army was 80,000. It will be reduced to 80,000."

"Already it has been reduced some extent through the expiration of enlistments. This process will continue.

A year or two ago, during the panic, recruits were plentiful, and soldiers whose terms of enlistment expired promptly re-enlisted. Now this is not the case. Enlistments are expiring rapidly and many men are obtaining other employment. There will be fewer recruits and the enlisted force will gradually drop to 80,000, probably during the present fiscal year."

It is said that the war department that the decrease in the military strength will be evenly distributed among the various branches of the service, so that the efficiency of the army will not be impaired.

The day had been to Pueblo to sound the day and a little after 8 o'clock started to drive to North Conway. When we about a half-mile of the village of Center Conway, and driving a steep incline, they were stopped by the shot of a masked man to hold up, with the approach of a second man with a rifle in his hand, demanding them to "get out of the carriage at a time," which they did.

One of the men holding a revolver in his hand began to take what money he could find on the persons of the young men, which was not quite $7. One of the party had a valuable gold watch, but this was not taken.

In the shoe of Billie Koen, the car was overlooked $40, which, upon the advice of his elder brother, he had placed there before leaving home. The last several days reports of kidnaps within a mile of Pueblo village have been frequent. The most serious was when a man who, upon failing to stop his carriage, received three bullet holes through it before getting out of the range. This caused town authorities to get into action, but they have not succeeded in rounding up the highwaymen.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

DROWNED IN RIVER JOHNNIE HAYES

Boy Slipped off Rock
Into Concord

Frank Hayes, aged seven years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, of 3 Wall street, was drowned in the Concord river about 3:30 a.m. last evening, the drowning being witnessed by a number of people who were powerless to aid him.

Frank with his brother, Walter, 14, had been making their big cook on the banks of the Concord river not far from the East Merrimack street bridge, when he slipped from the rock and slid into the river. His little brother, unable to swim, ran home for help but before assistance could arrive the boy had gone down in the swift current and had disappeared from view.

A son's was immediately instituted for the body. Undertaker Joseph Allard and his assistants working all night in an effort to save the body. The parents of the boy were prostrated by the incident. All night long the members of the Polish colony tried to give their watchful care to the son.

The body was recovered this noon by Captain Horace and Jerry Langley, after a search of 12 minutes. The body was found on a rock near where the boy was fishing.

THE FLUSSER

MADE SPEED OF 31.03 KNOTS AN HOUR

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Remarkable speed was made by the torpedo boat "Flusser" in her return to the portmanteau laid in a run on the Regatta course last week. The boat made 31.03 knots an hour, far outstripping all the contestants but the fastest.

Without examining the records the officers say they believe it to be the fastest speed ever made by an American naval torpedo boat, destroying previous records being around 29 knots an hour.

Foreign built vessels, however, have made a speed of 32 or more knots an hour.

The "Flusser" is being constructed at the Bath, Me., iron works, where Capt. William N. Little is the inspector in charge of machinery.

SAVED A BOY

JOHN R. FITZGERALD PROVED HIMSELF A HERO

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—It was due to the quick wit and action of John R. Fitzgerald, a teenager, of 11 Exchange street, Dorchester, that little James Murphy, living at 209 Prospect street, Dorchester, escaped from drowning yesterday afternoon near his home.

The Murphy boy, who is 5 years old, had been playing all the afternoon about a wall called "the dyke" when two little girls. At the time of the accident the tide was high in the little basin and the water was nearly six feet deep on the wall. The child was fishing from the wall, and in moving about the edge he slipped and fell in.

The little girls screamed, and the noise attracted Mr. Fitzgerald, who was going home on his usual wagon. He ran to the wall and was over the side in an instant.

He found the boy with his head under water, with one foot wedged tightly in a crevice of the wall. Treating water Fitzgerald released the boy's foot and took him from the water.

Being directed by bystanders, Fitzgerald took the unconscious boy home where he was resuscitated by several men. He recovered consciousness in a short time and was resting comfortably at a late hour last night.

Yours in sport,
John R. Fitzgerald.

P. J. Dineen, the well-known singer who is entered in the athletic carnival, was in Lowell yesterday evening, old acquaintances and making arrangements in almost exactly the same place about eight years ago, when he landed William Dean of Greenwich street, then a boy, from the ditch.

ELECTRICS COLLIDE

Motorman and Three Passengers Injured in Lakeview Avenue This Afternoon

A rear-end collision of electric cars in Lakeview avenue this afternoon injured four persons and for a time caused greatest excitement in the vicinity.

Electric car accidents are few and far between in Lowell and hence the news of such a happening causes excitement. But in this particular case both cars were packed with women and small children en route to the baby show at Lakeview and as soon as the news of the accident went abroad there were hundreds of inquiries as to the names of the injured from friends of those who were known to have gone to Lakeview.

The injured are as follows:

Walter Bourregard, a motorman, severely bruised about the legs and body but no bones broken. He is resting comfortably at St. John's hospital.

Annie Lawless, aged three years, whose parents reside at 267 Worthen street, who was cut over the eye. She was removed to Sparks' drug store where the wound was sewed up, after which she was taken home.

Mrs. P. H. Rogers, of 208 High street, was a victim of the shock and excitement. Mrs. Rogers is in a delicate condition and the shock aggravated her. She was removed to her home and attended by Dr. F. R. Shattuck.

A girl named Haviland, residing in Lakeview avenue, who received an injury to her arm.

The two cars in the accident were in a long line proceeding down Lakeview avenue only a short distance apart to Lakeview. When the two reached a point opposite Valley avenue, where a funeral procession was leaving the home of Thomas J. Duffy, one of the big cars suddenly stopped to avoid a collision with a truck.

The big car was closely followed by a heavily laden mail car and when it stopped, Madame Bourregard, who was propelling the small car, put on his brakes suddenly. The brakes refused to work and while he was putting on the reverse the small car crashed into the rear of the car ahead.

The dash board of the rear car was broken and bent back to the front seat on which all the injured people were seated. The rear end of the front car was damaged somewhat and a flying piece of glass struck the little Haviland girl over the eye, inflicting a cut. Mrs. Rogers screamed and fell in a swoon and was carried out unconscious. It is not known just how the little Haviland girl sustained her injury which was an abrasion on the arm.

Motorman Bourregard was tightly wedged between the dash board and the front seat and at first it was thought he was fatally injured. He was extricated from the debris and shortly afterward was taken by Manager Thomas Lees to St. John's hospital in the manager's auto.

As soon as the cars crashed, women and children leaped from the car screaming at the tops of their voices and for a few minutes it was thought that many were injured. People living in the neighborhood rushed to the scene and for a short time the street was completely blocked with screaming women. Most of the women on the car had very young children with them and this fact added to the excitement.

Manager Lees, Supt. Maloney and Claim Agent Driscoll were on the scene in a few moments and did all in their power for the passengers. The disabled car was taken to the Garage car barn while the big car, which was only slightly injured, proceeded to Lakeview.

JOHN C. BURKE LOWELL WON

Begins His Argument for the Worcester Defeated by a Score of 6 to 5

The sixth session before Judge Dana on the petition of the police board removed by Mayor Brown for reinstatement opened this afternoon in the superior court, Pemberton square, Boston.

Owing to repairs that are being made on the courthouse the place of hearing shifted from the first to the third floor. It was expected that City Solicitor Duncan would be on hand to argue on the motion to dismiss on the plea that the court has no jurisdiction, but Mr. Duncan was not on hand when the hearing was resumed at two o'clock and after a little delay Mr. John C. Burke outlined to the court the proposed form of procedure as decided upon by counsel for the petitioners, saying that repetition would be avoided as much as possible.

"I want to present to you in this case," said Mr. Burke, "not only the facts but the features surrounding the appointment of the petitioners, but just what they did in each individual case. I want to show how they worked, and the obstacles with which they had to contend. I want to make matters as plain as possible not only for the benefit of my client but also for your benefit in determining and drawing conclusions."

"In presenting this case I will not call Your Honor's attention to a single fact that is not borne out completely by the evidence. Fortunately for all concerned in this case all of the facts except, perhaps, that of prejudice were borne out by the evidence."

Mr. Burke then turned to the question of the sale of liquor on Sundays and referred to the case of the Commonwealth vs. Reagan. He said that the supreme court in this case made use of the language that the innkeeper was not supposed to know the actual intent of the guest. Mr. Burke read several sections from the findings of the supreme court all of which had to do with the motive or intent which would have to be determined by external appearance. In other words the keeper of the inn is not supposed to be a mind reader. Mr. Burke dwelt at considerable length on the question as to what constitutes moral and called attention to the fact that opinions in the matter were decidedly varied. But there was a law that became known as the sandwich law. He referred to what Mr. F. N. Wier, ex-police commissioner, enunciated as his interpretation of the sandwich law. He told of the removal of Morris, Jenkins and McEveen by Mayor Farnham and said that upon their removal and the resignation of Mr. Wier, Mayor Farnham looked about for three men who were honest, prudent men ever held public office in the commonwealth of Massachusetts. It would have been impossible, he continued, "to have pursued a more prudent course than these men pursued." He referred to the Honor case the law being placed on file and then rising to Mayor Brown, who was acting reluctantly to his first, he said: "That law the city would have suffered if the policies of this man [revering Mayor Brown] had been carried out. An inexperienced man raised at the moment, loaded with power, but inexperienced."

They had that from the lips of they proceeded to enforce the law as they understood it. They appointed two more men to the liquor force to gather evidence.

They went to Boston and took counsel with Mr. Johnson, who was known as an expert in these questions, said Mr. Burke. And I want to ask you if their actions were not the actions of zealous men, careful and desirous of giving to the city of Lowell the proper observance of the law. Every Saturday every hotel in Lowell was visited by these inspectors and every Tuesday night these inspectors made their report to the board. The evidence shows that when the cases of certain hotels, it is all, were ready for trial the district attorney suggested that it would be well to pick the two strongest of the 11 cases, continue the others and try the two out in the court, with the result as is outlined in the evidence.

Mr. Burke referred to the fact that the petitioners called the hotel men before them and told them that they must make application in their own name and then by more digging the commissioners then, petitioners now, were satisfied that they were to look upon the licensee holder or applicant for license as innocent until he was found guilty.

They had that from the lips of Judge Hill. Mr. Burke laid great stress on the fact that during the course of the performance of their duties they consulted on several occasions with M. Johnson and other able attorneys. He referred to the fact that the petitioners had as police commissioners cut down the number of hotels. They took away four hotel licenses and sought at their own expense to serve the best interests of the city of Lowell.

"Only men who were zealous, men who were anxious to honestly and faithfully fulfill the duties of their office would have resorted to the pains that these men resorted to," said Mr. Burke. "I do not believe that three more zealous, honest, prudent men ever held public office in the commonwealth of Massachusetts."

It would have been impossible, he continued, "to have pursued a more prudent course than these men pursued." He referred to the Honor case the law being placed on file and then rising to Mayor Brown, who was acting reluctantly to his first, he said:

"That law the city would have suffered if the policies of this man [revering Mayor Brown] had been carried out. An inexperienced man raised at the moment, loaded with power, but inexperienced."

He said that although there were several witnesses who at the hearing of their statements made by the petitioners the board did not offer any witness to refute those statements, nor did he seek to refute them himself.

Mr. Johnson said that he would not let the court entirely disregard all that the court entirely disregarded all cases where interests of third parties were concerned and read decisions from his records.

Speaking briefly he said that a police board should be given time to establish a policy, that the board should not be called in but it is assisted, then the board should be given time to be taken to the board and that they should be given a chance to make the necessary improvements or corrections.

Speaking briefly he said as to the number of police in Lowell, when Mr. Johnson said that no board in the city of Lowell except the petitioners had ever been petitioned to lessen the number and he said that the number should be a fair number to the interests of the city.

MATSON ARRIVES

Famous Road Driver Ready for the Lowell Race

Joe Matson, the famous road driver and winner of the Indiana triple race over the Crown Point-Lowell course in June, will pilot a Chalmers-Detroit roadster car in the light car race on Monday and in the national events on Wednesday to be run over the Merrimack Valley course, which is located in Lowell this afternoon, and in the race of the many drivers who have been entered in the race to be held this evening.

One usually has signals with the man in the repair pit, though for the most part the holding up of one arm, to show that a stop will be made on the next lap, takes care of the pit. This time is of course always shown on a board in front of the grand stand. But the signals between driver and mechanician are most important. I always devote a lot of time to perfecting my end and making sure that my mechanician is perfectly familiar with it.

The mechanician spends most of his time looking behind. This the driver can do because the removal of his eyes from the course, for even an instant, might mean either a lost race or instant destruction. And if anything happens behind, of course the driver has to know it. That makes signals necessary.

"Mine are simple. If the mechanician holds one finger before my eyes it means 'car coming.' If he holds up two fingers it means 'car close behind.' Three fingers signify 'car very close.' And four means 'car wants to pass.'

When he holds his thumb and first finger in the form of an 'O' I know he is out of oil. That about covers them, but it is mighty important that both of us shall be perfectly familiar with the code. In many a race those few signs are the only communication between driver and mechanician. Until one has been in a race without well developed signals the real value of speedway ready to hand out tires, gasoline, oil or anything else which he may need during the race.

While Matson has driven in many events he comes into prominence when he won the Indiana race. He is considered one of the best drivers in the business and always every detail in connection with the race is studied.

And the Bridegroom Also is Among the Missing

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Keeler, formerly Mrs. W. F. Lynch, of 24 Vernon avenue, Brooklyn, is looking for the bridegroom who disappeared with $1,000 of her cash two weeks after her secret wedding to him. If Keeler is found, he will be charged with grand larceny. The attorney, J. Pope Caldwell, will also begin action for annulment of their marriage.

The marriage of Keeler and the Widow Lynch took place at Paris, after a ten-day courtship, which began at Ocean Grove, N. J., where Mrs. Lynch went to spend July 4. Keeler became acquainted with Mrs. Lynch through her grandson, for whom he seemed to have a particular fancy. When he exchanged cards and the like after the Paris, Keeler is said to have written Mrs. Lynch, who was having a vacation to the Adirondacks, that the stars and himself were bound for the woods and would be pleased to make a party of three.

Mrs. Keeler, as a result of the marriage, and ten days later the wedding, had been lured into a secret. He sold her and his later would oppose the marriage. When they returned to New York, however, he told his sister of the ceremony, and his brother left in apparent anger.

When Keeler reported that they intended to go to Philadelphia, where he said he had considerable property, the bride came with him. With her approval, Keeler is said to have converted her savings into $3,000 in cash for rainy days in the west.

Before the time set for their departure for the coast, Mrs. Keeler says her son had left her to transact his private business in Boston, and waited for him from July 31 to August 2 before becoming suspicious.

Then she wired to various hotels that Keeler had been stopped at. It was said to be unknown at each place.

Mrs. Keeler believes that she has been the victim of a swindler who worked his name with the aid of the widow's so-called "sister." The police of New York, Boston and Chicago are on the lookout for Keeler.

FUNERALS

PHIL.—The funeral of Martin E. Phil took place yesterday. Prayers were said at the residence of a son, Victor C. Phil, of 59 Whitney avenue, where he had lived for the past two and one-half years of his life.

The church service was held at the Swedish Lutheran church in Meadow Brook street, where gathered friends and relatives from Lynn, Peabody, North Attleboro, Saugus and Lowell.

Martin E. Phil was the oldest citizen of Lowell of Swedish birth, with one exception. Many of these present have been acquainted with Mr. Phil for 40 or more years.

Mr. Carl G. Phil of the U. S. Cartage Co. had charge of all arrangements, he being the youngest brother of the deceased.

Mrs. G. E. Burns sang "Abide With Me" at the organ, and "Face to Face" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee" at the organ, all favorite selections of the deceased.

The upright character of Mr. Phil, so thoroughly demonstrated by many acts of self-sacrifice for others, was sincerely acknowledged by the church of which he was a charter member and for many years its senior deacon, as so fittingly referred to by Pastor Olson in his eulogy.

Among the many floral offerings were the following: Standing panel inscribed "Father"; three sons of the deceased and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Phil, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Phil, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Phil; wreath of roses inscribed "Grandpa"; grandchild of the deceased, pillow inscribed "Brother"; Carl G. Phil and Mrs. Adelbert Thompson; wreath of asters inscribed "Dad"; John Carter, Axel Palm, A. Sisson, Theta Johnson and Leonard Johnson; sheaf of wheat; Mr. and Mrs. John Ford; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Phil; G. G. Gilberts; wreath of white roses and white asters; Sterling mauls; wreath of white asters and galax leaves; Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Flather; green vine with evergreen and snowdrops; Mrs. A. Lorin and Miss Ethel Odeberg; Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Phil; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Phil; Mr. and Mrs. Gladman; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hunter; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Phil; Eric Lundberg; Mrs. Pong; Mr. and Mrs. William Rashin; Carl F. Phil; Martin R. Phil and Otto Phil; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phil; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson; and Mrs. John Gushue; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Burman; and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wilton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wiles; Mr. and Mrs. Hildredine Lundquist and Mrs. Hildredine Soderberg.

KENNEY.—The funeral of Margaret Kenney, daughter of Thomas and Edna Kenney, took place yesterday afternoon in their home, 37 Whiting street, and was largely attended. Among the floral offerings were sprays from her relatives and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Alter. The burial was in the cemetery to the Catholic cemetery under the direction of J. E. O'Donnell & Sons.

MORE STATE POLICE

Have Been Ordered to Scene of the Riot Near Pittsburg

PITTSBURG, Aug. 24.—The second day of the reign of martial law in McKees Rocks, the scene of Sunday night's turbulent disorders in and about the plant of the Pressed Steel Car company, augured well for a temporary truce of hostilities.

The arrival of additional state police under command of Captain Robertson of the Wicksbarre barracks early today evidently had a quieting effect upon the foreign strikers and their sympathizers.

From now on mounted troopers and deputy sheriffs will patrol Schoenville and the car plant day and night rendering well nigh impossible a recurrence of Sunday night's unrestrained violence.

The arrest of suspicious persons will continue today according to a statement made by Captain Marsh. An additional box car full was prepared yesterday as two now in use are overcrowded with 82 prisoners.

The funerals of the rioters will be held in the Greek Catholic church, McKees Rocks, today. Deputy sheriffs will be present in the church and graves.

The bodies of Troopers John Smith and John L. Williams were shipped to their homes early today, the former to Centralia, Pa., and the latter to Pueblo, Colo. The caskets were draped with wreaths and floral tributes, remembrances from the state and county authorities as well as from the coalmen's.

LOSS IS $7000 MAXWELL KILLED

Post Office at Plaistow, He Was Shot By Sheriff Johnson

HAVERHILL, Aug. 24.—A two story and a half wooden building at Plaistow, N. H., occupied by a general store and post office on the ground floor was burned early this morning with a loss of $7000. The second story was occupied by the owner, Ned F. Steeper, but he and his wife and family were away. The fire is supposed to have been accidentally set by neighbors who were transacting the Steeper tenement. Help was summoned from this city, a steamer being despatched over the road but a volunteer brigade prevented the flames from spreading to property adjoining.

GO TO THE RESCUE

GETS A DIVORCE

Decree Granted to Mrs. Helen K. Gould

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould obtained her final decree of divorce from Frank J. Gould today. The interlocutory decree was signed on May 20 of this year. There was no opposition today when Mrs. Gould's attorney made a formal application to Supreme Court Justice Giegengar for the final papers.

The decree gives the custody of the two children, Helen and Dorothy, to the father for six months in each year. Mr. Gould is not permitted to remain in this state until after the death of his wife. The papers do not mention alimony.

MANY ARRESTS MADE

In Connection With the Strike Near Pittsburg

PITTSBURG, Aug. 24.—Three collieries or smoke floated lazily from the chimneys of the Pressed Steel Car company's plant in Schoenville last night.

These mute signals told better than official pronouncements that the striking employees of the car plant have yet to wait long to win their fight against the company officials for the plant was still in operation despite the wild efforts of infuriated mobs to scare off the imported workmen during the past night to augment the company of Twenty-five men were arrested and put into the box car jails by nightfall. The men who resisted were manacled to the trooper's horses and dragged through the streets to the plant's entrance.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1908 was

15,956

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

There is one thing and only one that can be said in favor of President Eliot's new religion: It is better than none at all. Better try again, Prexy.

It appears by the news despatches that General Adelbert Ames succeeded in beating Taft at golf. Very good indeed, but the great question is whether his son will be able to beat Henry Cabot Lodge for the Senate.

When it comes to a question between accepting an income tax or a tax on corporation earnings, we think the people of the country will favor the latter. There is a great deal about the income tax that is open to criticism, although on the whole we believe it to be an equitable means of raising money by taxation. Against the taxing of corporation surplus earnings we can see no valid objection. It is an indirect tax that could be easily collected, whereas the income tax being a direct tax has always been the source of trouble wherever it has been adopted.

WILL THEY DO IT?

The citizens are now wondering whether the new board of police will carry out the wishes of the mayor and still find it possible to hold office under him and maintain their self-respect. Either Brown must modify his demands or the board must eat their peck of dirt and grovel at the feet of the man who was repudiated by Harris and MacBrayne. The only people who have made any gain out of the last change in the commission are the liquor dealers who were caught red-handed by the Harris forces and who undoubtedly would have lost their licenses had Simon B. and Winnie C. been able to hold office a few weeks longer and maintain their self-respect.

VERY UNREASONABLE.

It does seem unreasonable for any person with a particle of civic pride to protest against the trifling admission fee of twenty-five cents which is to be charged by the managers of the coming automobile carnival. The show will certainly be worth the price; and if there were no admission fee it would be practically impossible to control the crowd. Besides it is upon this twenty-five cents admission fee that the committee depends to make the enterprise a success. Few are so poor that they cannot contribute at least this small sum, and we hope we have heard the last of the protest against this nominal admission fee.

IMMIGRANTS SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED.

There seems to be a woful lack of system or method in distributing our immigrants to points where their services are needed and where they can do best for themselves.

The Italians, for instance, are perhaps the most skillful fruit growers in the world, and the wonder is that while so many of them come to make their homes in America few find their way to the great fruit growing sections. For some reason they crowd into the large metropolitan centers and eke out a precarious existence, while the fertile valleys of California and the balmy groves of the sunny south are calling for just such men to come where fame and fortune await them.

WHERE WE LAG BEHIND.

Lowell is behind in many things in its unincorporated affairs, but nowhere are we so wofully distanced as in our fire apparatus. It is time to do away with the horse driven hose carriages and engines. The automobile apparatus as now developed by several reputable manufacturers is practically perfect, and our entire department should be gradually equipped with machinery of this kind. By this means we can dispense with the services of many firemen who are drawing good salaries, or we could spread the same number of firemen over a greater area to operate nearly double the number of our present machines. Not only does the automobile reach the scene of a fire in a much shorter time, but it is much more economical during idleness than are the horses. Horses must be fed and cared for when idle and they are constantly depreciating in value as they grow older. The auto-engine or truck costs nothing when not in use and is much more efficient when it is in use than any horse driven apparatus in existence today. We should sell off our old fire apparatus to the smaller towns and get something that is up to date.

FOOLISH PRANKS AT WEDDINGS.

The insane pranks of practical jokers, so common nowadays at wedding parties should be stopped. Public sentiment should frown upon these outrageous diversions until they are a thing of the past. Why should a newly married couple be made the subject of humiliating annoyance, and even placed in danger of death or permanent injury at a time when they are setting out upon the most serious feature of their lives? When a man takes unto himself a wife too better or worse, and when a young woman pledges herself to abide with her chosen husband until death doth part them; when both join hands for the great battle of life, to be as one through sunshines and rain, is it not an occasion of too much seriousness to themselves and of too much importance to society to be made the butt of practical jokers and ridiculous antics by frivolous and belligerent people? Matrimony is a sacrament and one of the most holy of sacraments and it should be treated as such. A wedding may be made the occasion of joy, of congratulations, of festivities of a proper kind, but never the occasion for turbulence, hilarity or excesses of any nature. It is the duty of friends to encourage the young couple starting out on the most serious phase of life, and they should not be harassed or humiliated in a public way on such an occasion. The attitude of the church in this matter is well known. The truth is with unthinking people who should be taught a lesson whenever they resort to such outrageous actions.

PEOPLE OF NOTE.

Chicago's board of education has opened a school exclusively for tubercular children, and so popular has it been from the start that ten others will be established, says The Daily News. Thirty pupils—alert, enthusiastic, but physically abnormal children—romped and played and enjoyed their instruction; they laughed while they washed dishes and did chores at camp; giggled when they washed their teeth, and when it came to the shower bath, took an innovation not even fancied then for knew no bounds! The daily program has been full out as follows:

8:30—Arrive at school.
9:00—Breakfast.
9:30—Wash teeth.
9:45—Dish washing.
10:15—Play.
10:30—Gymnastics.
10:45—Stories told.
11:00—Light games, etc.
11:45—Dinner, etc.
12:30—Noon meal.
1:00—Clean teeth.
1:15—Reclining chairs.
2:15—Sleep, 1 hour.
3:15—Light gymnastics.
4:15—Sidecar.
4:30—Swimmer bath.
6:45—Return home.

In view of the great popular interest in the art of living, H. H. Martin's views, expressed in Aeronautics, are noteworthy. He says: Flying machines will never be able to work with destruction by dropping explosives from the air. Even large quantities of high explosives dropped from an aerial轰炸机 (bomber) would not be destructive in streets of large cities would not be widely destructive."

Rehearsals of Sir Arthur Pinero's latest play, "Mid-Channel," have begun in London at the St. James' theatre. In this country it will help to further the ambitions of Ethel Barrymore, who will act the leading woman's part.

In response to the request of the American Yacht Society that 100 men and 100 women subscribe each $100 to the endowment fund, 12 of each making 24 in all, have already contributed. In Daily Society Record, the society's monthly publication, attention is called to the fact that the 24 persons who have each subscribed $100 or more have ready made up a sum of $4,200, and that the subscriptions of the remaining 88 men and 88 women who are to subscribe in this class are gratefully awaited. A good many collections were made on the Fourth of July for the endowment fund, and numbers of small gifts have been received by the treasurer. Of the $18,411.74 subscribed, $10,632.65 has been paid into the treasury. During the five months remaining before the end of the year, contributions more than $21,500 must be collected in order to secure the $40,000 offered by Mrs. Russell Sage.

For William H. Van Allen, S. T. D., has been spending a great deal of time among the Anglicans in America while abroad. He lately presented in the little village church at Chidley, Wales, where there is a Benedictine community, one of whom, Brother Elfrid, was a visitor in Boston a few years ago. From this place Dr. Van Allen's next visit will be to the community of the Resurrection in another English town.

James O'Neill, who for more than thirty years has been a star in his own right, will appear this season in the support of Miss Viola Allen in Lieber & Co.'s production, "The White Sister." Mr. O'Neill will have the part of Monsignore Sacraeas. Mr. O'Neill has become so completely identified with "Monte Cristo" that few persons, especially among the youngest generation, remember the variety of parts he played prior to his appearance as Edmond Dantes. He made his stage debut in 1888 at the National theatre in Cincinnati, and possibly the most discussed appearance of his was made as the Savoir in the Passion Play, produced at the Grand Opera House, San Francisco, March 3, 1879.

The little music hall on 36th street, grand Central avenue, in New York known as Zuma's, Schwan's, Adler's, is to open early in October as a somewhat pretentious German theatre, under the name of the Wintergarten. Pariser Zeitung and Prater-Mirror, Middlebury, Vermont, and Heidi Osternag, the latter, have been engaged for the new theatre.

The company are to have the new organization, which will include Antrofing of Vienna, Anna, the Queen of Berlin, Theodor Wolf of Berlin, and Ludwig Arno, last year with the New theatre at Vienna. Parise and orchestra will be given. For the last three winters the little theatre "At the Sign of the Black Eagle" was well patronized by the upper west side German population, who, for the price of a glass of beer or a cup of Vienna coffee, could hear Ode Liedche, Wettbewer, Flamme, etc., with much enjoyment. Last fall Adolph Pfeiffer revised "The Corner Grocer" here and kept the old pieces going for a long time. Rehearsed and considerably remodeled, the house will open on October 4th with a farce called "Alma, Where Do You Live?"

Miss Louise R. Hemenway has just been appointed inspector of milk and provisions in the south and district of Boston by the board of health of that city. Miss Hemenway's salary will be paid by the Women's Municipal League of Boston.

Spain's latest royal babe, named after its grandmother, Princess Beatrice, is fair of feature, with blonde hair and blue eyes like its royal mother. It was baptized with Jordan water at the ancient carved font used centuries ago by St. Dominic.

Dr. D. K. Pearson is quoted as saying that he will give no more money to colleges which permit cigarette smoking among the students.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL.

The regular meeting of Branch O'Neil-Crowley, No. 588, Irish National Foresters, was held last night in the Harrington building in Central street, with Maurice E. Hannifin in the chair. There was a large attendance of members and numbers of small gifts have been received by the treasurer. Of the $18,411.74 subscribed, $10,632.65 has been paid into the treasury. During the five months remaining before the end of the year, contributions more than $21,500 must be collected in order to secure the $40,000 offered by Mrs. Russell Sage.

Two applications received. A committee of five was appointed to make arrangements to celebrate the third anniversary, to take place on the second meeting in September.

MAYOR STOY

REFUSED TO RECEIVE NOTICE TO CLOSE SALOONS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 21.—Interest in the reform movement in this city was intensified yesterday when Mayor E. H. Stoy reluctantly refused to receive a notice from Attorney General Wilson ordering him to close Atlantic City saloons on Sunday. The notice was served upon him in his office by David Johnson, a member of the reformers' organization. The mayor declared that he knew the contents of the notice which gives the names and addresses of 38 saloon and hotel proprietors who are alleged to have sold liquor on Sunday of the recent month, and he refused to accept service even after the contents of the paper and the signature of the attorney general had been read to him.

Under the state law the refusal to act within ten days on an order issued by the attorney general makes a city official liable to indictment for a misdemeanor. The leaders of the reform movement declared last night that they will cause the arrest of the mayor if he refuses to acknowledge the notice issued by the attorney general. Reform lawyers claim that the open refusal of the mayor to receive a document signed by the attorney general may lay him open to charges of contempt of state courts. Mayor Stoy refused to discuss the matter last night.

HURRICANE WARNINGS

PENSACOLA, Fla., August 24.—For the second time in the history of the city hurricane warnings were shown last night by the weather bureau. They have caused much uneasiness among the bay shore residents, who fear a repetition of the hurricane of three years ago. Vessels at anchor have put out extra anchors, while the fishing fleet, with many of the larger boats and steamers and two or three coastwise steamers have gone across the bay and anchored in a cove. A wind blowing from 30 to 40 miles an hour prevailed all day and last night lowering clouds, with exceptional high tide, gave warning of the approach of the hurricane.
